Heraldic items in each church are numbered from the North-West corner of the Chancel. If the visitor goes to the Chancel, the numbering commences with the first item on the left, and continues, reading from left to right, and where appropriate, from top to bottom.

The language of heraldry has been used throughout, but this should not be an obstacle, as the tinctures and charges will be apparent when the description, or blazon, is matched with the item itself.

For explanations of heraldry, the local libraries have a good selection of books available on the open shelves, or on request.

Notes on the heraldry of churches in the County of Middlesex are being compiled by members of the Middlesex Heraldry Society. Illustrations of the arms are by Margaret Young.

The following have been published:

St. Lawrence, Cowley;	St. Dunstan, Cranford;
St. John, Great Stanmore;	Holy Cross, Greenford;
St. Mary, Harefield;	Saints Peter & Paul, Harlington;
St. Mary the Virgin, Harmondsworth;	St. Mary, Harrow;
St. Mary, Hayes;	St. John the Baptist, Hillingdon;
St. Giles, Ickenham;	St. Andrew, Kingsbury;
St. Mary the Virgin, Northolt;	Holy Trinity, Northwood;
St. John, Pinner;	St. Martin, Ruislip;
St. Margaret, Uxbridge;	St. Martin, West Drayton;
St. Lawrence Whitchurch;	St. Mary, Willesden;

Copies may be available singly at the church concerned. They may also be obtained, singly or eventually in sets, from the series editor, (K.W. Holmes, 22 St. Margarets Road, Ruislip, Middlesex HA4 7NU - Ruislip 633880).

Details of membership are available from the Hon. Secretary, Mrs. P. Foster, 44 Northumberland Road, Harrow, Middlesex HA2 7RE - 081-723 4622.
